

We notice with great delight the deep interest shown for the students of Sacred Heart College by our Rt. Rev. Father Abbot in appointing Rev. Father Maurus O. S. B. as professor of stenography and type writing in the Commercial Department.

Rev. D. Vincent, O. S. B. has left for the Apostolic Mission House in Washington D. C. Much as his services were appreciated at Sacred Heart, his Superiors decided to afford him the advantages of a special course of lectures at that seat of learning. Later on his sphere of usefulness will be among non-Catholics in the "Far West."

Rev. Father Patrick O. S. B. has returned from Enid where he had replaced the Very Rev. Father Depretere V. G. since Christmas. The lovers of Classical Music, and the members of the parish choir, more especially, are delighted at his return.

Our esteemed friends Mr. E. Barthelme and family have removed to Okarche where they purpose having more extensive fields for activity. While regretting their withdrawal from Sacred Heart parish we wish them every success.

Mr. G. G. McVay of Lehigh visited us lately. He is a promising young lawyer and it may not be out of place to entertain the thought that at some future day we may have the honor of addressing him — "Your Excellency!"

George M. Clasen of the Class of '03 paid a visit to his Alma Mater some days ago. His younger brother is now pursuing his studies at the College. Madam Rumor has it that G. M. is deeply interested in the present happiness and future welfare of a very promising Rose in our neighbor's Conservatory.

Miss Medicus sister of the village doctor to native —
"Have you heard of Dr. Medicus Frigus about here"?

Native—"Rather, mum! Do yer see that hearse and carriages goin' by over there? That's one of his funerals".

"There's no danger," said the doctor. "It's only a carbuncle coming on the back of your neck. But you must keep your eye on it!"
